

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (May 8, 2009) - On May 4th Adam Gay, driver of the Hunt Brothers Pizza Thunder Car and Legend Car began his quest to win the Humpy's Heroes Driver Development Program. After spending all day driving a Nationwide style car and a Camping World style truck, Adam was able to hold his own against some more experienced drivers. He also got some experience making pit stops at the Rockingham Speedway. Adam will be going to Gastonia N.C. this summer to drive a dirt late model at the Carolina Speedway. He will also be taking part in 4 races at the Summer Shootout at Lowe's Motor Speedway.

Adam talking to Humpy

When asked about his thoughts on the program Adam replied "To be a part of the original 10 Humpy's Heroes participants is a honor in itself. To have the guidance of Mr. Humpy Wheeler and his son Tripp along with David Ragan, Kenny Wallace, Gary Nelson, Andy Hillenburg and Roger Slack is more than a driver could ask for.

David Ragan offers Adam some advice

Wheeler believes in the young drivers. "We have two or three here that have the potential to go to the top" he said. When it's all said and done, one of the 10 will get a gold trophy and a chance to work with a cup team. They will also be interviewed on Wind Tunnel with Dave Despain.

When Adam was asked about his goal he said "My goal is to win the competition and come home with the gold" All this will wind up back at the Rockingham Speedway in August where they will drive again but this time they will be timed. We believe with Adams attitude and determination he has a very good chance of winning.
